1 ~ Sunday, October 10, 2021, 3:10 a.m.

“Namaste. It is I, the one known as Jesus or Jeshua to some. I Am the author of much of A Journey into the Unknown, along with many other entities. A Journey into the Unknown is a continuation of the concepts and principles I taught in my first two books, A Course in Miracles and A Course of Love. A Journey into the Unknown is about both application, as well as exploring new concepts in new ways. It pushed buttons and the fault line that existed prior to Journey being shared with the world is now a deep cavernous divide. We have learned that saying you believe in love and unity are very different from practicing it. Our prayer is that those whose buttons were pushed by A Journey into the Unknown’s provocative material will dig in deep to find out why they know me better than I do. It’s that simple. Freedom awaits those who explore the beauty of A Journey into the Unknown.

What is happening with Journey? After 20 months of writing just under 1,000 pieces of writing in 24 parts, Journey is largely finished being written, with a couple of exceptions. Secrets of the Unknown was completed this past week. It very well may be the most controversial book in the series. A Shock to the System still has more scenarios to be written, as does the seventh book of a group of seven books that have been sealed or darkened. They will not come to light or be unsealed in the foreseeable future. This book will continue to be written into 2022 and will be the longest of the entire series.

The real purpose of A Journey into the Unknown is to bring willing readers/experiencers from Christ Consciousness to Christ Manifestation and to support them in this transformation, which brings us to a brand-new series. Starting today, I present to you ‘Arrival: Living in the Material World’. Unlike its predecessor, it will be strictly about supporting Christ on the earth. It will be comprised of weekly transmissions in unity and relationship between the seen and unseen. Those of us on this side of the veil do not know more than any of you. We are in this together, supporting each other.

You will be pleased to know that your beloved Mother Mary and St. Germain will play important roles in the new series that will have a singular focus and not multiple parts like A Journey into the Unknown does. It will be a singular weekly transmission.

After last week's Sunday Celebration, we realized that we can't top I Am speaking to a group of Christs and that this would be a very appropriate way to end the parts of A Journey into the Unknown that have been shared with the world.

It is with great gratitude that I thank Christina and her team for all their tireless effort in birthing Journey to the world. I also wish to thank those of you who have found ways to share this button pushing material. My hope is that if you enjoy and value Arrival: Living in the Material World, that you share it freely.

As I reflect on lessons learned over the past 20 months, I'm sure many of you would agree that there is something about being Christ that attracts negative attention. This is something all aspects of Christ share, whether it was 2,000 years ago or in 2020-2021.

You will not be hearing directly from me as often as I Am passing the baton to very experienced successors. I will speak to this group from time to time in the new format and will not be a stranger.

In love and light,
Jesus, your brother in Christ"

"It is I, Rami. You are under my care now. You are experienced travelers, well versed in spiritual language and application. Now what do you do and how do you do it? These are questions that don't have pat answers. The Christ is a multi-dexterous, multi-dimensional being. It lives all over the world. We are learning to move as One. While one aspect of Christ is dealing with conditions in one city, another may be dealing with different conditions elsewhere.

It is through messaging that all parts of Christ can be alerted to trends we see, things that are underway or emerging. This is how everyone can be on the same page. Christ isn't at all interested in fearful reactions but is interested in knowing what is or what is about to transpire.

During the 'End of days as we knew them', the Christ offices, as you have been and will continue to be referred to as, will be affected by events and trends.

Other channels, besides our beloved Rick, have been sounding the alarm about material shortages. Please pay attention, Christs. Be very cautious about your money supply. Be cautious about spending money on non-essentials right now and possibly for quite some time to come. Build up your savings because prices will jump drastically, and various products may not be available at all. Christ enjoys abundance and will continue to do so, but abundance may look and feel different than it did before.

This is the beginning of the transformation of the world and all beings on it. It will not be pretty, but Christ needs to know.

Expect regular messaging from my team and me to arrive in lovely bulk packages each Sunday. We will continue with Jesus' tradition.

In support,
Rami"

“It is I, Rami. Yesterday, I cautioned you each to begin to put the brakes on non-essential spending in your personal financial lives. Today, let’s expand on this topic by introducing a word that is familiar to many. This word is frugality.

Treat everything that you currently have as something that may not be able to be replaced, either because a replacement item is not available or there are replacement items available, and they are simply too expensive to justify purchasing them. The term, ‘make-do’, is about to become paramount. The days of buying new shoes and clothes just because you want to are about to end.

Many of you enjoy purchasing fresh fruit and vegetables and have access to local farmer’s markets. If these were to become scarcer or dry up for any reason, it will be important to have a back-up.

Starting immediately, if you can do so financially and space wise, please consider buying a few extra canned goods than you normally buy each time you shop. Be a squirrel and start to stash away things that will last and will be needed.

Start a cash reserve in the event of electrical outages and remember the adage to only give away 10% of your extra to anyone in need. If you have $100 extra, you can bless someone or a charity with 10% of that, which is $10.

Tomorrow, we will dive in deeper. Good night, everyone.”

In Light,
Rami”

End Time: 8:02 p.m.

4 ~ Friday, October 15, 2021, 6:30 p.m.

“It is I, Rami. This is not a doomsday scenario. I Am not encouraging you to hoard supplies and prevent others from having access to them. I Am simply asking Christ to accept the very real probability that living here is about to have different living conditions. Going from stores that are overflowing with affordable goods to stores with empty shelves and prices that will put what is on the shelves unaffordable to most will be a very difficult transition.

If Christ can be ahead of the curve, this will help greatly. This will be one more tool in your vast toolbox to model to others. What will you model? You will model acceptance and joy as the consumer age contracts and finally ends. While others lose their marbles, you will keep yours.

The Christ offices are not materialistic at all but you each have enjoyed certain lifestyles. Now, I Am asking you to make lemonade out of lemons and enjoy a new lifestyle with less.

No one will escape what’s coming, not even the very wealthy. Everyone will have to prioritize and cut back. There will be no other choice. Think of the possibilities to express love in tough times. There can be potlucks, book exchanges, old fashioned salons where people gather to civilly converse. There can be yard sales where goods or services are exchanged instead of money.

In other words, everyone will be forced to re-evaluate and embrace relationship building instead of the mind-numbing consumerism of the past 70 years.

With wisdom,
Rami”

End Time: 6:50 p.m.

5 ~ Saturday, October 16, 2021, 7:44 a.m.

“It is I, Rami. There will be a silver lining for what is to come, just as there have been silver linings for many events ranging from natural or man-made disasters to pandemics. The question of ‘How can this show me what’s true?’ is the one to always remind yourself of.

Consumerism and materialism have built a false reality to match the great false identity. They create more and more division and separation between the haves and the have nots. People even ask if God likes some over others based on their buying power.

This is what will change. We would like our Christ offices to give themselves some time to adjust and then take the bull by the horns and embrace the new way. No one is being punished. It will just be a new set of opportunities to promote growth in humanity.

If any of this is sounding familiar, that’s because it will be. History repeats itself. Conditions will be like that of the Great Depression in the 1930’s. Financial instability and scarcity of goods will re-visit the earth, and this will in turn cause great political unrest. Humankind will miss the point and see how wrong the situation is and then blame it on whoever is in charge politically.

Don’t fall into the blame and shame trap, Christs. There is no one to blame because we are ushering in the time of Christ and showing the time of me, myself and I the door.”

We are in this together,
Rami”

End Time: 8:03 a.m.

6 ~ Sunday, October 17, 2021 ~ 3:53 a.m.

“It is I, Rami. It isn’t that the sky is falling. It’s that things are changing in ways that will provide ample opportunities for new growth. This is what we on our end are highly interested and invested in, growth. Why? Because growth = love. The more love that we have, the more our precious earth project can transform to reflect what we are made of.

Christ is good about rolling with the punches and making the best of difficult situations. This is what we can model. Don’t focus on what’s happening on the surface but rather, why it’s happening.

This may be the first time many of you have been introduced to me. I know that Rick is a little bit in the dark about my identity. Like Jesus, St. Germain and Mother Mary, I Am a super soul. You can say that the super souls are siblings and were the first personified creations of I Am. We had a larger and more intense amount of I Am energy from the get-go, so we had a head start.

All of you are our children in one way and brothers and sisters in another. Your I Am energy, your souls, came from us in micro-droplet form and now look at what has transpired! You have grown and developed and returned to the fold, where you began. You came full circle. You are each living testament to the power of love and for that we are eternally grateful. I speak for all of the super souls when I say, “If they can return to love, so can everyone else!”

It is with great pleasure that I have this opportunity to speak with you. Each week, we will give you some insider information so we can all be on the same page.

Welcome home, Christs. Welcome home.

With gratitude,
Rami”

7 ~ Monday, October 18, 2021, 7:05 p.m.

"Greetings. It is I, Rami. Change is always uncomfortable and even the prospect of change can be upsetting, but please remember that virtually nothing in the human world is based in truth. If we are to successfully intervene, things must change or the world will always be a missed opportunity, a thing that could have been but wasn't. Comfort and convenience are highly prized commodities but all they really do is make sure that things never change. We don't want the earth to be a place where souls can come to play dress-up and make believe any longer. If a soul comes here, it will be with a firm understanding of the condition being that they always be themselves, a reflection of the very God they are part of. Nothing less will be acceptable. We've been tolerant of the vilest of behaviors because the involved characters would not heed to their souls pleading, but no more. Why should God plead? Why should God wring her hands and say, "he wouldn't listen." How can God harm other parts of God? The paradox that makes no sense will not be tolerated any longer. If this sounds harsh, it is. The tough love approach will only be the beginning of our plan to regain control of the beautiful earth from those who are not fully invested in love and there are, unfortunately, plenty of them.

My advice to all the Christ offices is to remember that life here is illusionary because virtually no one knows who they really are. They are pretending to be something they are not.

You on the other hand, have stopped pretending. You know who you are and are fully invested in this nugget of truth, so while things in the world may affect you in one way or another, they will not distress you because you understand the plan and your role in it.

In truth,
Rami"

End Time: 7:28 p.m.

8 ~ Tuesday, October 19, 2021, 6:22 p.m.

"Greetings. It is I, Rami. The world concept is a package deal. While you can go here or there, do this or do that, there are things that affect everyone and everything. Storms and forest fires affect both people in their path and the smallest of animals. Covid 19 has affected everyone in one way or another, directly or indirectly. Many things have always been outside of the individual's control. This is why I gave a heads-up last week about controlling what is in your control, namely spending and preparedness. It's always good, timeless advice, but it will be especially pertinent in upcoming trends.

Christ doesn't care one way or another. It loves everything, even tough, uncomfortable situations. Christ sees the good in everything and everyone but knowing is empowering and helps Christ to be proactive.

Everyone has access to just a certain amount of money. If you know that you should be cautious with it because you don't control the prices of things, then this is good, useful advice. The world has many moving parts and each of you are only part of the picture.

I say these things to you to remind you that we are building a new world, this time based on truth as the foundation. The old world will not magically disappear. In fact, many are actively invested in this not happening, even if it could. Resistance to Christ is great.

Things that affect everyone and everything are in our control, and we will use these things to dismantle the greatest 'Big Lie', the rampant false identity.

In truth,
Rami"

End Time: 6:48 p.m.

9 ~ Wednesday, October 20, 2021, 7:04 p.m.

“Greetings friends, it is I, Rami. Hopefully by now I've explained my comments about upcoming trends, the beginning of the last days as we knew them and how individuals lack the power to control most all aspects of the world. They can pick items off a menu and that's all they are allowed to do, despite New Age doctrine about creating and manifesting. Characters are certainly not creators and creators (Christ) just cooperate with creation instead of opposing it. Once false ideas take root, as you all know, they take on a life of their own.

Beliefs have been the number one stumbling block here and beliefs are truly something we can't do a thing about. People have a vast array of beliefs about virtually everything and they are certainly entitled to keep them. It isn't our place to tell anyone that their beliefs are mistaken. They will have to figure that out on their own, in their own timing and most everyone takes them to the grave. They then discover how limiting belief can be and how significant belief can be once they rejoin the fold.

Until then, Christ must remember two things. Everyone gets to keep their thoughts and beliefs, no matter how bizarre they may seem. Our job is to model love to everyone from every belief and background. We must work around them. We want everyone to slowly open to love and move away from judgment and condemnation. The rest will take care of itself eventually.

If we are to have a more loving world, it is our prayer that love will awaken or change a character and allow their soul to shine through all of the beliefs that may have been trapping love in the first place.

In truth,
Rami”

10 ~ Thursday, October 21, 2021, 7:00 p.m.

“It is I, Rami. Let’s review some facts. We understand the concept of fact is being questioned in your world because some benefit when it is, but let’s list some absolute truths about each of you. Christ is

- Observant and not reactive
- Truthful
- Rarely forgiving because it is rarely condemning in the first place
- Happy go lucky
- Filled with gratitude for everything
- Frugal
- Wise beyond the years of the current lifetime
- Loving
- Still
- A visionary

Each of you are common and yet extraordinary. You are no different from anyone except for one tiny thing. You feel a sense of belonging, of connectedness to everyone and everything. You don’t feel special because you know everyone is special. Everyone is part of God, and you don’t judge them because you know that everyone has their path to take. You see everyone and everything through the lens of love and not fear. Your natural (and essential) operating system has been replaced by your soul’s natural operating system.

Christ performs miracles simply by facilitating them. It doesn’t put on any shows by raising the dead or walking on water. Christ doesn’t seek attention but uses its own ability to focus its attention on facilitating God’s will by helping love to flourish.

In truth,
Rami”

End Time: 7:24 p.m.

11 ~ Friday, October 22, 2021, 7:07 p.m.

“It is I, Rami. A lot of events and occurrences will transpire on Christ’s watch, which just started in modern times this year, in 2021, in a somewhat larger way. Know that we allow things to transpire that will help us to meet our collective goals. These will affect everyone in one way or another but it’s Christ’s attitude about it that we hope will set the standard. Christ always sees the good more than the bad and will do just fine no matter what is happening. Christ is the calm in any storm and many storms are nothing more than reactions to changes.

The earth itself is changing. It only wants to host beings who have raised their vibrations and will support the natural world instead of raping and pillaging it, largely to profit off consumer goods.

Christ supports all of creation, including Gaia, who has largely not been supported by mankind. Adjustments are in order.

Environmental concerns are only one of the changes that must occur as we transform the earth project. Global warming, due to greenhouse gasses and harm caused to species such as elephants and sharks, who are mutilated for their ivory tusks, and fins, are all overlooked symptoms of a sick society that has been abusive in its relationship with the natural world.

Christ does no harm and does not support those whose values are not in alignment with love.

You can see clearly that the status quo of all that is not in alignment with love and the mere presence of love is a recipe for some friction.

In truth,
Rami”

“It is I, Rami. Remember these principles please. Fear is the absence of love. It is a reaction. It is a misunderstanding. Please tell me the name of the scariest horror movie you have ever seen. Was the movie itself scary or was it your interpretation and reaction to the images and words in the movie that produced the fear? Christ may not want to watch the movie, but even if it did, it wouldn’t infuse it with fear because the movie itself doesn’t have any power. Remembering this lesson from A Course in Miracles will be helpful. Nothing has any power over Christ, not even a horror movie, not even a real-life situation. Christ holds all the cards.

I have a special treat for everyone for tomorrow's transmission. Until then.

In truth,
Rami”

“Today we celebrate YOU, in conversation with Mother Mary and St. Germain.

Mother Mary: You are the very reason why we are here. You are the wind, the trees, the cool fall air, the warmth of the sun. Christ is not limited to strictly animating one body. It animates many and has many perspectives and experiences. Christ is the formless in and outside of form.

St. Germain: When we are still, we illuminate from within. The light leaves the borders of the body and joins with all light everywhere. We are the wisdom, the creative force itself.

Mother Mary: We have no worries or fear. Whatever situation we find ourselves in, we will experience it with love as our guide.

St. Germain: We are the light in a dark and heavy world. Our light transcends everything.

Mother Mary: The light, our light, is a gift from God. It is our identity. It is what we truly are.

St. Germain: In stillness, we shine. What will love have us do here? What will love ask?

Mother Mary: This is our mission and calling, to respond to love by simply being our true Self, the Christ, the transformative power from within YOU.

St. Germain: With these simple words, truth has been spoken.”

14 ~ Wednesday, October 27, 2021, 7:00 p.m.

“Greetings all. It is I, Rami. What does the title of these messages mean? It means that Christ now lives in the material world. Christ goes by many names and lives in many different places, but it is now a stable entity. It isn’t emerging. It isn’t wobbly and unsure of its footing. It is a solid presence. This is the purpose of these writings, to make it a more widespread phenomenon. Let’s face it, most people don’t know what Christ is. They think it was a very special man, namely Jesus or Buddha, someone who was enlightened and very close to God, someone who had powers ‘normal’ humans didn’t.

All of you have tossed this definition on its head. You are each a regular person who is divinely guided all or at least most of the time. This is what Christ is. This is the true definition. You are not followers of anyone or anything because you are each God in mankind or womankind.

It’s not like you have a place you can go where the operators know how to support Christ. Churches will tell you how to follow Christ, be good and repent if you aren’t. Stores will sell you endless books about spirituality, but you’ve probably read them all. There really isn’t anything in them that you don’t already know.

Therefore, Jesus started A Journey into the Unknown. We needed something to fill the void, something to support Christ manifestation and now I’m taking over where Jesus left off. Arrival: Living in the Material World will support Christ as it continues to do the inevitable, which is to grow. Rome wasn’t built in one day but guess what? It did become Rome eventually.

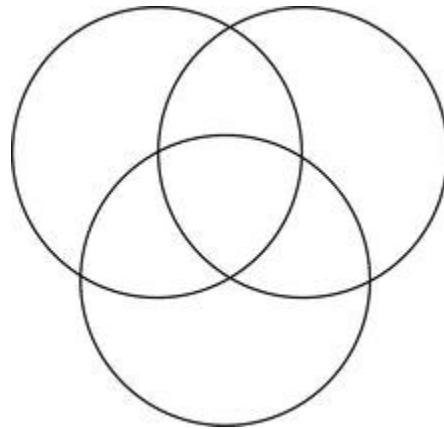

With a magnificent love,
Rami”

End Time: 7:21 p.m.

15 ~ Thursday, October 28, 2021, 7:07 p.m.

“It is I, Rami. Here’s what we are doing, and it has everything to do with you. The purely unadulterated Divine spirit has now made its home on the earth. Instead of only having the natural world and the human world, we now have a new world. Yes, you read this correctly. Although Christ lives in and interacts with the natural world and the human world, it is not of either one. It stands alone.

Christ’s power is affecting both worlds by its mere presence. The new world is helping the two ancient worlds to progress. Think of a three ringed Venn Diagram where each ring intersects with the other two. This is a new phenomenon, ladies and gentlemen. Up until very recently, the earth project was only a two ringed Venn Diagram.

Eventually, the three rings will disappear and there will only be one. The remaining ring represents a unified world on the earth where there is no more resistance. Everything will be Divine and anything that isn’t will not be here any longer.

This obviously is a tall order, but we are fully committed to fulfilling it. You as Christ or more aptly put, Christ as you, will be supported through unity and relationship with the unseen. Christ, in turn, can support itself in others and many of you are doing this as I speak. You are listening to one another. You are meeting virtually. You are sharing these messages with one another. All these things are helping Christ to be strengthened. Think of strength training or weight training. This is literally what you are doing. Christ is developing relationship and unity with different aspects of itself.

Rami”

End Time: 7:31 p.m.

16 ~ Friday, October 29, 2021, 6:45 p.m.

“It is I, Rami. I send love from all dimensions of God, as God is a multi-faceted, multi-layered Being. Part of what is transpiring now is a greater and deeper understanding of what exactly God is. This is a step in the right direction, finally. The superstition surrounding the angry and punishing God in the sky must be replaced with truth. Even the angriest, thought obsessed human is part of God too, as is everything. Christ is modeling knowing this crucial fact and acting on it by letting go of the resistance (ideas) to it. The rest takes care of itself.

Christ has arrived and is living in the material world in order to build a new one. This time, God or the Divine, is welcome on the earth and in the many lives of Christ. It’s the gold standard. Christ does no harm and is helpful. Easy, right? Well, all of you can attest to the fact that this is anything but easy. It completely goes against the grain of the human world and the world of Christ, the House of Truth, as it is also known, is not an island. To go back to the three ringed Venn Diagram again, the House of Truth intersects with the human and natural worlds. It must do this until the world of the Divine, the world of Christ, is fully self-sustaining.

This means that each of you shop, conduct business, work at a job and do hundreds of different things in the human world where humans absolutely believe they are human. Since we live amongst you now too, in unity and relationship, we have made many observations about each of your lives, the lives of Christ. The first conclusion we have come to is that none of you fit in or belong here and the second conclusion is that no one knows what to think about you. This is good news. They are paying attention.

Rami”

End Time: 7:08 p.m.

17 ~ Saturday, October 30, 2021, 7:00 p.m.

"It is I, Rami. It's your non-reactiveness that makes you seem otherworldly or supernatural to the earthlings and this confuses them. What they don't realize is that you are showing them an example by being an example. Being an example is the way out. It's the way to have your cake and eat it too. It's how to live here by being the power and not being the powerless, clutching at anything to give them power, all of which is ultimately meaningless.

What do I mean by the power? You are the power over thoughts, both yours and ones that come from individuals and groups in the populous. You don't always believe them, subscribe to them, or invest in them. You are free from them. You are free from the small identities and now you identify as the only true identity, which is Christ. You are God in man, God in woman. We have arrived.

Going back to how Christ is currently being perceived, since virtually no one knows what Christ is, virtually no one knows who you are. Maybe they think you are weird in one way or another. You look like a regular person. You have ten fingers and ten toes and yet many are sensing something they can't quite put their finger on.

Because there are still a relatively small number of Christ offices or aspects, there are many areas of land where there aren't any. Even in these places, people's radar has been heightened. They are feeling more fearful than ever before. They are feeling more threatened than ever before. What are they so afraid of? You.

Rami"

End Time: 7:21 p.m.

18 ~ Sunday, October 31, 2021, 4:22 a.m.

"They are afraid of you because their egos are afraid of Christ. The ego knows that it will be replaced by Christ, and it is acting like a trapped rat. You see, somewhere along the way, a natural product, the ego, became something it was never meant to be, something defiantly unmanageable, something that does not want to go away or be replaced.

This has intensified and can explain the unexplainable, such as political polarization and the high level of anger across the globe. Egos are posturing and mobilizing. They are saying in essence, "We are the holy ones. It's those over there who are the problem." "Save me, but they can and should be destroyed."

Now, the ego does not know exactly who or what Christ is, and they don't know who they are talking to. Maybe they hope the pretend God in the sky is listening to them beg for salvation. The point is that the high level of fear in the human world is in fact, a reaction to the presence of Christ.

It's as if the wiring in their brains has gone haywire. The word irrational is appropriate. The level of irrational thought has shocked and disappointed the world, but it knows no limits. Christ on the other hand, is the bastion of rational thought because it emanates from the Christ Mind, the Mind of God.

As you live in the human world this week, being the blessing that you are, know that something is happening, something spectacular, and that something is the Second Coming of Christ, the return of sanity to an insane world.

Everyone is welcome to our new world and the only price of admission is to leave their small thoughts and identities behind. Have a great week ahead, Christ offices.

Rami"

19 ~ Wednesday, November 3, 2021, 7:00 p.m.

"Greetings, holy ones. It is I, Rami. I look forward to addressing this group each week. It's a genuine highlight for me to provide unity through relationship to a group who has lovingly responded to and allowed the impossible to finally happen. To use your popular vernacular, 'Christ is in the house'.

You may not have noticed but people who encounter you 'clean up their act' so to speak, when they are around you. You each bring out the best in those who are fortunate enough to experience your Divine energy. Now, how about them apples?

I'm not serious all the time. Like you, I enjoy finding the humor in life and the lightheartedness helps things not to be so heavy and troublesome.

I'm grateful to my brother, Jesus, for entrusting me with this group. I have vowed to not lead any of you astray, not that I Am capable of such a thing (smile).

The truth is that this is a 'who is leading whom?' type of situation. While you may look forward to reading these collections of messages each week, it is I who look to you for inspiration because it is you who works tirelessly on the front lines. I'm just the supply officer. You are each the heroes and heroines visually and realistically representing the truth. We look at you as rock stars arriving for a concert in a limousine.

Being in relationship with the unknown means learning about our perspectives and some of these may surprise you because we really aren't that different from you. We just don't have bodies, that's all.

I thank you for being in my life. I thank you for serving as Christ in such a strange and beautiful place.

Namaste (I bow to you),
Rami"

"Rami here. I quite like how language has become very informal and relaxed. 'Rami here' reflects 2021 better than "It is I, Rami" does. You can teach an old dog new tricks and trust me, I am very much an old dog. I've been around in one way or another for billions and billions of earth years.

Some of you would be shocked to find out how old you really are! You know about your true identity but what you don't know is when you as micro-droplet soul were first born or more accurately, first secreted. Your true self, you as soul, is millions of years old. As a human, you may feel all the aches and pains of age-related changes at 50, 60, 70 or 80 years of age but this is just a drop in the bucket compared to your real age.

A soul is eternal and immortal, but it does grow and mature in the time-based laboratories and of course, the earth is one of these.

Christ is a multi-plex movie theater, so multiply your millions of years of experience and growth by all the Christs currently incarnated and then add in the Christs who are disincarnate and you have an amazingly vast and complex Being, don't you?

This is the real you and the real me because you are in actuality, a 'we', and I Am actually, a 'we'. We just have individualized points of focus. Think of record players playing different records but they are all record players.

We are all Christ even though our points of focus can look very different, but if you look closely and really take a close look, you will see it. It's in Mary Christ and Belinda Christ and Chester Christ and Sara Christ and on and on and on, forever and ever. It's the Divine Principle. It's love. It's wisdom and it's intelligence, all wrapped up in one mysterious and glorious package."

“Rami here. During the acceleration of the deterioration, there will also be an acceleration of the accentuation. There will be more of the bad and more of the good too. The bad will help people to see the importance of creating the good and the whole.

There really are two different types of climate change happening on the earth. One affects Gaia and then affects the human world by default. The other kind is a warming of temperatures in the human world, causing all the anger and hostility.

The solution to human climate issues is to reject fear and embrace love. This is what Christ demonstrates. Christ is being supported through acceleration of the support available to willing hearts and minds. Christ accentuates the human world and the natural world, while building its own new world, all at the same time.

Our focus is on Christ and the construction of the new world, the new earth. This is the Kingdom of God. It’s God’s Kingdom because only God is in it. There is no resistance to God in the Kingdom. There is only accentuation through individualization within the whole.

Christ is creating a home for God because the human world left little room for her. She was excluded and unwelcome. It is taking all of us together to weave a new tapestry.

Have you heard stories about various pioneers and how hard their lives were? This is the same with all the Christ Offices currently. Your lives are often very demanding because there is only a small group doing the work. Like other pioneers, you have felt the weight of the world’s burdens on your backs.

I will speak tomorrow about Christ self-care during these turbulent times.

22 ~ Saturday, November 6, 2021, 7:00 p.m.

“Rami here. Tonight, let’s talk about Christ Self Care 101. You already know about health and nutrition for the body, but what about Christ? What does it need in terms of maintenance? It is the primary operating system of the body now. It is you. What do you need as Christ?”

The first thing that you have needed is nurturing and support. You were nurtured for many years, mainly by spiritual teaching literature, such as A Course in Miracles. When your soul matured and was ready to take over control from the ego, then you needed to be supported in that because you wouldn’t find any support for Christ in the human world. That’s certainly true. A Journey into the Unknown took you from the nurtured mature soul phase to a fully emerged Christ aspect. You then developed relationships with many in the unseen world as your internship and residency. Now, you have graduated and opened your own offices, so to speak. We are continuing our support now with Arrival: Living in the Material World.

This is what we are doing collectively to support our Self, the one Christ, but what can an individual aspect of Christ do to care for itself? There are several things. First, find a way, no matter how busy you may be, to simply disconnect and turn it all off. Turn off the noise, the distractions and the insane nonsense. Do this as often as you can, on a regular basis. Jesus has suggested a return to keeping some type of Sabbath and Mother Mary has concurred. Seriously consider mini-sabbaths throughout the week because let’s face it, living in the material world is quite draining.

In addition to a weekly sabbath, mini-sabbaths, meditation and communion time, the most crucial thing is to practice the holy instant. When you ‘light up’ and join with us, your light, the light of Christ permeates through every pore of the body. This is the most important part of Christ Self Care 101.

In Conversation

Mother Mary & Rami

Mother Mary: "Let's focus on gratitude today, shall we?"

Rami: "When we look at Christ today in 2021, it is such a large and widespread entity than when you were on the earth. The supports are in place and the new earth is being built. How do you feel about what is transpiring, Mother Mary?"

Mother Mary: "Jesus, St. Germain and I have all worked tirelessly on birthing Christ in the modern age and it really happened. Christ is spreading its wings across the globe. I have tears of joy and my heart is full of gratitude for all the Christ pioneers who were not only willing to listen but to practice and apply. I am grateful to you, Rami, for taking control of this next phase, which is expansion. Our skyscraper is getting taller, and our offices are more plentiful."

Rami: "I Am grateful to be the new project manager for the expansion phases. The foundation was already built, and it is good and solid."

Mother Mary: "The 'Christ Self Care 101'" is so important, Rami. Thank you for emphasizing it this week. To all our wonderful Christ aspects who are reading, bless you each. We couldn't be prouder of who you have become. To quote Rami, 'Christ is in the house.'

Love and blessings always,

Part 1 of 5

"Hello everyone. This is long awaited, let me tell you. My soul's mission was to teach while I was in form, and I did just that. I wrote books about past life regressions and others about E.T.'s. I gave lectures and had quite a good life that I enjoyed very much but, guess what? My soul has more assignments. There are always more assignments, friends, and speaking intimately to a group of Christ level avatars is the number one item on my list.

You each belong to me for the next several days, dear souls. I have come full circle from channeling the dead to channeling to the living. Like I said, I Am fortunate to have had such a remarkable life. Who am I, you may be wondering? I know that some of you already know and have been expecting me. I Am Dolores (Cannon). I'm pleased to make your acquaintance if you are unfamiliar with me and if you are already familiar, then bless you. It's time to get re-acquainted.

The cool thing about being able to author books is that you get to leave a lasting mark and not be out of sight, out of mind. My mission was to teach about the illusion of death and the reality of different human like forms in many different realities, as well as the illusion of time and the truth of reincarnation or what I now call the 'incarnation/dis-incarnation/incarnation circular path to wholeness.'

My message to you today is that everything I taught was true, but it was meant to be consumed and understood by humans, so it was rather simplistic. Even the most far out topics that I wrote about were written so that the average human mind could possibly grasp them.

Now that I'm home and untethered, I have an even better understanding of truth in all its complexity, not just its simplicity. Let's dive in, shall we?

Part 2 of 5

“Channeling or becoming a portal for the unknown to become known is no easy task for a mere mortal. You kind of have to morph into something else in order to serve something else. You must melt away and become your natural essence and when finished with a session, you must snap back and deal with all the complexities of being human again. This process is going from something rigid, hardened and closed off to something that is opaque and fluid.

Translating communication from an entity without a body or even an entity with one, but in another dimension is a rare gift. I had it and Rick has it but this isn't something that most Christ level souls or avatars, as I like to refer to them as, will experience themselves directly. A channel is like a TV station. It is powerful enough to transmit to many and then the many rebroadcast the content in different ways.

The vast majority of avatars experience the unknown world and their connection to it through a deep sense of knowing. It is something they know they have now but didn't have when they were still lost in the fog or asleep at the wheel. Now, there's a bonified human for you, asleep at the wheel.

Once Christ matures and takes over the body or consumes it, then going asleep again is impossible. We've said that the opposite of being asleep is being awake or more accurately put, being aware. Someone who is asleep is not aware of much, if anything, but someone who is awake pays attention to all the little nuances in life, all the unspoken things, all the intricacies of this delicate web we call the earth.

Part 3 of 5

"I can hear them now. "That old bat found a way to speak again, even though she's dead." That's the point. You don't die. You just continue in a different way. You become untethered. You don't have to be driven or flown anywhere. You are free to explore.

I communicate non-verbally now, as do all who are dis-incarnate. I don't have a physical body, but I do have an ethereal body and am visible to those on this side. I can make myself visible to those on your side if I so desired.

The earth is a pseudo reality. Like all pseudo realities, it exists as a strengthening tool for God to make more of itself. It is temporary and is a buy-in reality where those who experience it must buy into it by agreeing to experience it. The idea that it is a virtual reality hologram may have some credence but even that doesn't really explain it very well. The earth project is so complicated. It really can't be adequately explained as a hologram or an illusion. There's more to it, much more.

The term 'illusion' may help to lessen the impact of the world, if someone believes that this is all the earth is, but the problem here is finding purpose in an illusion because it would seem that there isn't any, by default. Yet every one of our projects has great purpose because God is benevolent. It doesn't do anything without purpose.

I hope I'm not stepping on any toes. The earth is an amazing project. I can be in New York City one minute or near my old home in Arkansas the next. Pretty amazing.

Whatever the earth is, however, you choose to describe it, it is a part of us and it can be a unifying experience. The emphasis is on the words "can be".

Part 4 of 5

"The fear factor and the control factor are both too high and the respect for the choices and expressions others make is too low on the earth. This makes it hard for everyone.

Since I've been gone, I have visited firsthand all the galactic societies that I once wrote about. Writing about them and then getting to experience them through observation has been a real highlight for me. Most didn't know I was there but believe it or not, there are some societies that are so advanced that everyone knew I was there. Yes, the veil is completely disappearing in some realities. This is what we want to happen here one day but until that happens, there is much work to do, very, very basic level work. Most people on the earth don't even know the difference between love and fear. They are stuck at like and don't like.

Humans are just so stubborn and so uneducated about the true principles. Everyone thinks they are right and yet they are so wrong. They aren't that different from sheep being led to the slaughterhouse.

I'll get off my soapbox because I know I'm preaching to the choir. My main message today is that of hope. Many galactic societies that I consider advanced or well on their way toward being truly enlightened, were once very similar in development (or lack of development) to that of the earth project. So, if they can pull it off, then so can those aspects of the One who dwell on the earth. Take it from one who knows.

A note to those who knew me personally, I Am alive and well. I completely emersed myself in my studies after I transitioned. Hopefully, you don't think I'm haunting you. I just returned to continue my mission and it's a big one."

Part 5 of 5

"My mission, my purpose, is to promote education, true spiritual education. In building a new world, our books can't be delegated to a small, obscure section of a bookstore or restricted to specialty bookstores. Amazon is great about recommending titles, but someone must start a search first. Our resources are there. We just need to get them into people's hands. Wouldn't it be great if true spiritual education was available on the nightly news? They tell you what happened but don't tell you why.

Christ is all about living the principle of love and demonstrating by example. You became a walking, talking spiritual book but you are also well versed with all the print and electronic resources that are available now and can make recommendations if asked, tailored to each individual.

I was and still Am just like each of you. I have a fire in my belly, a passion to keep exploring and supporting all the many changes that are not only happening here but are happening even in advanced societies. There is no end point in love. There is just more (and more and more).

What do I spend my time outside of time doing? Mostly just being Dolores the explorer, but now my life is entering a new phase now that I have re-connected with spiritual pioneers. I want to mentor to help support the extremely important work you all are doing.

Rami returns next week but you will certainly hear from me again in this forum. Life never ends. It just pauses and changes form, but the true essence of a soul remains the same.

29 ~ Tuesday, November 16, 2021, 7:00 p.m.

“Rami here. I couldn’t stand being away from my human charges for a whole week, so this week, we will have 6 communications instead of 5. I know that readers enjoyed hearing from Dolores. She is such an asset to the team. You may wonder why we present so many channeled souls in our work and this is because these souls are different parts of God, who is so vast and so varied. There are no two souls that are alike. To get to deeply know the essence of a soul or many souls is to begin to deeply know the diversity of God.

It is so crazy to think that the God who created such a wildly diverse natural world expects humans to walk in lock steps of conformity. It isn’t God who seeks this. It is men who seek to control and dominate one another because power and strength are worshipped here in this upside down, topsy turvy, twisted “reality”.

Even people with various problems or people with difficult histories or bad reputations are part of God too. There are reasons why they did what they did. They need understanding and acceptance, not judgement and rejection.

Does it surprise you that the Jesus who embraced Mary Magdalene would also love and respect all the souls who appear in “Beyond the Veil” or “Proverbs for a New Age”? It shouldn’t. Radical love or perfect love embraces everyone, no matter what.

Jesus’ name is tossed around so much but few know Jesus or even know what Christ is. This is what we seek to change, not by corrected narratives but by new versions of Jesus and Mary, living the same Christed life, all over God’s kingdom.

30 ~ Wednesday, November 17, 2021, 7:05 p.m.

“Rami here. One could argue that an ego is a type of sickness and Christ is the medicinal cure for it. Even a healthy ego is quite off kilter. What about criminal egos or mentally ill egos? They are splashed across the nightly news as abnormalities but are they really that abnormal? People who strictly live according to the perceptions and dictates of the ego are finding it harder and harder to do because the ego’s wiring has gone haywire. It’s as if the programming has been hacked by a virus.

We’ve said this before, but the virus is Christ. Christ awareness and Christ consciousness have been in the earth’s radar for far longer than Christ manifestation has and if someone were to do their research, they could trace this virus that I speak of back to the arrival of small bits of sanity to the landscape.

Because Christ manifestation is so extremely powerful and potent, anything that is not compatible with it will feel threatened and not be able to function. Fully incarnated Christ is not diluted. It’s like the world’s most expensive perfume or 100 proof alcohol. It’s the real deal and its presence is causing problems for those who don’t know what it is or where it is coming from. This is causing a type of panic that we have never seen before and it’s all your fault, Christ offices. The funny thing is that no one knows who any of you are. They don’t know that God is walking amongst them.

Jesus caused trouble when he spoke the truth, but he received unwanted attention long before he started to teach. There was something about him that was irritating the local egos, something they found threatening. So now, history is repeating itself but the threat is bigger, more widespread and more clandestine.

End Time: 7:38 a.m.

31 ~ Thursday, November 18, 2021, 7:20 p.m.

“Rami here. Let’s delve into the situation a little more. There is an invisible, soundless substance on the earth now, that was not here before. It is like an odorless gas, and it is making individuals and groups lose what marbles they may have had at one time. They are going crazy, both literally and figuratively. The natural operating system, the ego, has been threatened. By what? By Christ, because the ego knows that something is here to put it out of a job. How can a thing, a system of thought, feel anything? The answer is that the ego, as primitive as it is, is the very first example of A.I. (artificial intelligence). It can be likened to a computer operating system that believes that it itself is real. It is and always has been wrong on that count, but it is right about its perception that there is something new on the earth, something it dislikes and even hates. This is you. This is Christ, but the ego does not know this yet. I say yet because it will find out and it will organize and mobilize to deter this threat.

The ego only knows the outright lies and distortions it has been taught and teaches about Jesus Christ. For those who believe these falsehoods, the idea that the Second Coming is already happening, and that Jesus will now be coming out of the sky to solve everyone’s problems, is pure blasphemy. The fact that the ego is not mentioned in these false teachings is most interesting, don’t you think?

We have been monitoring events since we have had a small, even tiny, group of pioneers who would admit and commit to their own Christhood, their own divinity and connection to God. The connection between the increase in insanity, as a direct relation to the increase in sanity, is undeniable.

Rami”

End Time: 7:50 p.m.

32 ~ Friday, November 19, 2021, 6:40 p.m.

“Rami here. Much of what I have said has already been expressed in very similar ways by Jesus and many others in A Journey into the Unknown. I’m just adding a little realism and perspective here. If you were to rate the general craziness in the world on a ten-point scale, most would rate it a 7.5 right now at this moment in time. Expect it to rise into the 8’s and then the 9’s and then finally be off the scale, past number 10, all while Christ is being happy go lucky, blessing and creating by giving love to love.

This is how we build God’s Kingdom, our new world, while the old one combusts. We simply hold the energy. We hold it so that the new web can be tightly woven. This is all we need to do.

I have previously stated that doing this is anything but easy and one reason is because what you will see transpire in the House of Illusion will be upsetting and even traumatizing. Simply bless, trust and move on. Do not bring upsetting imagery with you into your day. Being empathetic is wonderful but it can also be harmful to the empath. By now, everyone who is reading has had plenty of practice with this, due to the many examples of horror in the world over the past several years and even longer.

Everything is in place now. The foundation for God’s Kingdom, the House of Truth, is poured. Now we are ready for building and expanding.

Your tasks are to stay clear and keep your true identity front and center. Remember that your small, earthly identity is just that, a small earthly identity.

"Rami here. This is the news behind the news. Crazy times are because of the presence of Christ, something that virtually no one knows about, knows where it is or how it works. It is considered the hidden enemy within. Of course, this is ridiculous. Christ is no one's enemy and yet this is the fearful interpretation of something that cannot be identified. Humans have already falsely defined what Christ is, so in their minds, it can't be Christ that is the problem. Interesting dilemma, right?"

This will carry on and will intensify over time. The social norms that have already deteriorated will continue to do so until there is no turning back. Meanwhile, Christ will grow and strengthen collectively. You will each continue to interact with the human world for a wide variety of reasons but remember to keep your perspective. Only love.

Your ability to love will be tested. Christ will be asked a series of questions. "Can you love this?" "What about this?" "Now, how about this situation?" The answer will always be a resounding, "yes, of course!" Remember this and all the tests will be easy peasy. Just don't get pulled into the dramas. They will grasp anyone in their path, in order to widen and grow stronger. Just deny them this opportunity. You, as Christ, must keep your non-reactive, neutral perspective always. This is top priority. It will protect you, dear ones.

Until tomorrow. I have a treat for each of you.

"Greetings on this fine day. The goal in A Course in Miracles was to promote inner peace by finding ways wherever possible to disempower the world's effects on a practitioner of the daily lessons. We are now referring to this as Christ Awareness. This leads to Christ Consciousness which then expands to full Christ Manifestation. Here we are, ladies and gentlemen. We are at the end of the growth of your true selves and the beginning of its expansion into the creation of a new world.

I liked Rami's comments this week that talked about Christ being energy that can be perceived by those around you, either in positive or negative ways. We did not equate the True Self as energy and yet it very much is. The 500-piece puzzle has turned into a gigantic 1,500-piece puzzle and it's a puzzle with very small pieces that are extremely challenging to work with. No wonder it takes so long to put it all together.

My note to you today will be a short one. I'm like the elementary school teacher watching her students working in their fields of expertise after graduating from college. I'm glad to have been part of this journey. Now that Christ has arrived, life can use each of you in the mysterious ways it unfolds.

Blessings from the sidelines.

“Rami here. This week, let’s do things a little bit differently. Let’s ‘shake things up’ as they say. Let’s reflect and ‘chill out’. While we look at the construction site that is Christ.

It has a solid foundation, and the first floor is built. This is where each Christ office is located. The sky is the limit for how many levels we can add, but for now, we have the beginnings of what will be the structural components of a new earth. We are using symbolism in our language and the foundation of the new earth is of course, truth. The same cannot be said of the old paradigm, which must be passed through in order to get to the part where we are now.

Now is the time of the great shift in thought. Now is the time of the harvest and the new beginning.

Rami”

End Time: 6:19 a.m.

36 ~ Thursday, November 25, 2021, 8:30 a.m.

“Rami here. The harvest is the gathering of the crops. In this specific case, it is the gathering of fully mature souls that have taken over their assigned bodies and characters. These souls started their journeys in seed form, much like an apple seed that grew into a big strong tree that eventually produced delicious fruit. This comparison is a good one, with one exception, which is that the journey of the soul typically takes much longer than that of an apple seed. In addition, unlike an apple tree, a soul is immortal and cannot be harmed in any way. It can appear in and out of time and go through both growth periods in time and dormant periods, in-between lifetimes, in time outside of time.

What is it again that is harvested? Christ is harvested. It is being gathered as I speak. How is it being gathered? It is being gathered through the support we are providing, as well as the support each Christ office is providing through unity and relationship. There is a great deal of sharing going on and this is part of the harvest as well, a crucial part of it.

This is a good time to acknowledge the one known as Christina. If she had not been willing to stick her neck out and do all the hard work in collecting, organizing and promoting this material, there would be no harvest. She did all of this simply because she knew it was the right thing to do. It wasn't the popular thing to do but she was going to respond, and her response is what has gotten us to this point. Without Christina, these sacred writings would still be in meticulously organized notebooks, unseen by those who needed to see them. If there is a true hero in this story, it is Christina, the modern day, gatherer of souls.

37 ~ Friday, November 26, 2021, 5:30 a.m.

“Rami here. A Journey into the Unknown was going to be written but it wasn’t guaranteed that it would be lived. Since it was to be a living work, a living testament of Christ, it needed to be seen by an audience that had gathered to experience it. The gatherer of souls, Christina, and her team enabled this to happen. There was blind faith because no one knew exactly what it was, who it was for, or what it would become. It was a strange and yet pleasantly surprising experience for the readers, thanks to Christina, et al. ‘Word’ (meaningful slang for truth spoken).

The one known as Rick doesn’t like to talk about himself, but he must write down what we provide, so he doesn’t have much say in the matter, now does he (smile)? Let’s just say that he’s very much like an embedded journalist. His soul is on a mission to do this work. It’s his life’s mission that is only coming to fruition now. The one known as Rick is actually from the nether regions and is on our executive team. This is his most interesting assignment so far. Right, Rick?

Nothing is as it seems, Christ offices. None of you are who you appear to be either. You are who you see in the mirror, and you are so much more. You are the face looking back and the mystery behind it.

“Rami here. This will be my last message to you this week. Tomorrow’s will be given by a very special guest.

The sky’s the limit when Christ gives love to love. Rick and Christina have built the foundation for the new earth with their willingness to serve, even under duress at times. Now, all the Christ offices have the opportunity to help our movement away from fear toward unconditional love, by simply being love and if prompted or called to do so, responding with love, helping it to grow and flourish.

You are each a sun of light, blessing everyone and everything you encounter. There is not one person on this earth that you will reject because Christ does not judge and condemn. It only blesses each one on their journey, however that needs to be, and whatever that looks like to human eyes. All paths lead back to God in the end.

Christ is the blessing the world has longed for. The characters may not appreciate it and may deeply fear it, but their souls are very appreciative. The cavalry has finally arrived. Sanity is here!

“Greetings, Christs. It is I, the one known as Jesus. If human nature and all that it entails isn’t really an issue anymore, then it makes sense that life in the Kingdom will be very different than life in the human concocted world. Let’s spend the next few Sundays drawing up a blueprint for what we are envisioning. Shall we?”

One of the biggest ways that the ego influences other egos is through the area of entertainment. Most egos feel that they need constant stimulation through mind-based pursuit of pleasure, but Christ has a different approach.

Christ is happy to sit under a tree or take a walk to feed the ducks, so entertainment will be used to enhance the experience of living a life of love. Everything from music to plays to novels and movies will be used to share experiences of love. They will reflect love’s viewpoint, so the meat of human entertainment, namely sex and violence of all types will be relegated as relics of the past.

In the Kingdom, everyone will be free to and encouraged to create art that reflects the perfect joy that its occupants feel each and every day. Entertainment will be a vehicle to support everyone in the Kingdom. It will not be lurid and exploitative because everyone will only want to explore what love offers. Will it be sticky sweet? It’s unlikely. It will be rich, textured and most importantly, real, because love is real. It isn’t fake and contrived.

When love is all there is, there will be a true renaissance on the planet and entertainment will just be a new way to spread more goodness and joy, in unlimited ways.

Love and blessings, Jesus”

End Time: 2:33 a.m.

40 ~ Sunday, December 5, 2021, 4:36 a.m.

“Rami here. Jesus gave us an assignment last week.

We are to visualize what life in the Kingdom will be like if human nature and specifically, fear, is not a major component. Entertainment was the topic last week so this week, let’s continue our exploration.

What else will look different than it has? If the entire focus will shift from “me, myself and I” to service to others, then everything will change. Let’s start with the economy. Will the only occupant of the Kingdom, namely Christ, have a need for what has been known as money and private ownership of housing and business? Christ will be in different forms, but the forms will all finally realize that there is only One of us here, so all giving of goods and services benefits all of Christ.

Ownership and status will not be part of Christ’s mindset. One aspect of Christ may choose to drive what used to be thought of as a luxury car and one may walk and ride a bicycle. One will not be thought of as better than the other. That type of comparison will not be there. Owning things will not be a goal because the very idea of ownership will be a thing of the past. Everything will be seen as something that is borrowed from Gaia and will be used until it returns to her. Gaia serves Christ and Christ serves Gaia. This relationship will finally be a healthy one among equals. Just because plants, animals and minerals don’t talk the way humans do doesn’t mean that they are less than and to be taken advantage of.

Use the art of thought about this topic this week, Christ offices. Discuss it in your Zoom meetings. This is a major revelation and needs to be broken down and digested. We will continue to build the Kingdom through visualization next week.

“Rami here. Christ has no masters. The same cannot be said of humans. No one can tell Christ what to do or when to do it, so in the new world, there will be no one to exert control over Christ. There will be no government, no bosses, no landlords. There will only be freedom to create in.

Christ will decide when to rise in the morning and when to go to sleep at night. Christ will decide how to best respond to love by extending love. Each Christ is an artist in his or her own right and very few have had the audacity to tell an artist how to do their art.

If making sweaters brings a Christ aspect or office joy, then that soul will decide when to take orders, when to produce and when to surprise others with the finished products. This Christ will decide when to go on holiday and when to switch production from sweaters to socks. There will be no factory boss, no sweatshop, no paycheck to count down to, no rent to pay to an angry building owner. All of this will go ‘poof’. It will be gone. It will be banished from the Kingdom forever because these types of relationships enslave. They do not free.

Humans are enslaved to one degree or another. There are a tremendous number of rules and expectations that are taught to everyone from a small child to those who are senior aged. No more. ‘Poof’, they are gone, banished forever. Christ does no harm and is helpful. No further clarification or specification is needed. Christ is free. Christ is free.

This week, please use the art of thought individually or in group form to discuss these questions; What will the Kingdom of God look like if all relationships are loving and supportive? What will it look like if there are no overlords, no abuse of any type?

Peace Out!

“The human web of interdependency is fragile and shoddy. It has huge, gaping holes in segments, and others with broken strands that cannot be repaired. It is filled with compulsory demands like, “You must do this job you hate, or you won’t get paid and then you will be homeless, living on the street.”

Let’s compare the human web with the Divine web we are creating. Every single Christ aspect’s job is to support every other Christ aspect, including Gaia. To return to our simple example last week, the artisan is completely supported in her ways of being by the larger collective. Their jobs are to support her in doing what she loves doing, without expectations of any sort. They won’t expect to be paid back in any way. They won’t expect a certain number of products. They won’t expect a 40–60-hour work week. They won’t expect her to be on call. They will only know deeply within the shared Christ Mind, that she is following her heart, her soul, with perfect timing. Other Christ’s will not attempt to exert control over her creativity with expectations and demands. All of Christ is free. The artisan can make sweaters and socks and is free to close shop one day and explore bread making or swimming with dolphins.

The Divine web is only made of love. The strands are so perfectly and tightly woven that no one can fall through. There will be no burned bridges. Look past at your own lives and the relationships that supported or did not support who you have become today. Look at those in your society who do not have a supportive community. This is what ego and fear have produced.

The Divine web of love will produce a very different world, one of possibilities, not one of compulsory actions. Everyone will be treasured, and it will not be based on performance or how many hoops they can jump through.

The Art of Thought

- ♥ Be totally present as a Human Being
Fully experience everything with all the body's senses and feelings
- ♥ Be totally present as a Divine Being having human experience
Fully acknowledge everything as a gift of God, the Creator behind the Created
No part of being is negated, pushed away, or left out.
- ♥ Feel and acknowledge the Relationship and the Unity in the experience
The ongoing song of cocreation, the giving and receiving as One,
the belonging to each other.
This is Living Oneness. BOTH the Jewel AND the Net.
- ♥ Realize within the experience, Love's call and Love's response.

"Hark! The angels sing your names because there is light here now. We begin our work in 2022 with this simple realization. We are the light. We are neutral observers in a world of conflict.

The God collective is not involved in the conflict. We are peace and tranquility in the storm. We are not saviors. Our blessings encourage individuals to save themselves by taking themselves out of the conflict. As each Christ has so beautifully accomplished, everyone must save themselves from themselves, as they themselves were the only ones blocking peace from their own minds. No one else has that kind of power over them.

Being Christ is about taking back your own power from the ego-mind and then sharing this power in ten distinct ways. The ten powers of Christ are what we will focus on in 2022, as well as continuing our work in creating the new earth through visualization.

Welcome aboard, Christ. No matter how rocky the external world may get this year, Christ will be the calm in any storm.

Rest in peace (now)

The Ten Powers of Christ

1. The power to alter the course of another aspect of yourself.
2. The power to stop suffering.
3. The power to alleviate need.
4. The power to grant wishes and desires.
5. The power to enhance.
6. The power to change situations and outcomes.
7. The power to know and trust.
8. The power to explore.
9. The power to invest.
10. The power to manifest.

44 ~ Part 1 of 2 ~ Saturday, January 15, 2022, 6:54 a.m.

"We have not focused specifically on the word 'healing'. This is because being human automatically implies needing to heal a vast array of physical and emotional trauma. It's part of the human package. We have not separated out being human from needing to be healed. This is what you find in the world's health care systems. They seek healing of the body or healing of the mind, but they don't seek to heal the separation between the human and the divine, because they don't know about it.

All symptoms of all diseases are simply products of the separation. We have sought to address the cause rather than the effects. We don't want to pray for healing unless we understand the cause of the problem in the first place. You can say and you would be quite right in saying that all problems of all types, whether it's a disease, or feeling stuck in a situation and experiencing suffering, are symptoms of being human and being limited to ego and the brain's perceptions.

As humans evolve away from exclusive humanity to a hybrid model of both human and divine (Christ Awareness and Christ Consciousness), there is less need for the healing of symptoms. Finally, at the Christ manifestation end stage, there is no need for healing per se because there is only wholeness. Everything has already been healed. Once whole, once the heart and mind are merged, then Christ is ready to model wholeness and offer blessings to alleviate suffering on the human journey, through the modality of the ten powers of Christ (see #43).

45 ~ Part 2 of 2 ~ Sunday, January 16, 2022, 6:35 a.m.

“Souls enable life to flow through the character. That is when and if the character is willing and able to listen to the soul. The ego’s voice is louder, especially with immature soul companions.

If Christ walks by someone or projects its energy onto a situation from afar, this is what transpires. It is that the character’s soul has an extremely powerful second soul as a backup. Think of a plugged-in charger. The person who is being blessed is receiving a full charge of Christ’s energy. How could this do anything other than produce miraculous results?

Remember, you will seldom know someone’s situations and internal conflicts, but what you do know is that virtually everyone here desperately needs a good dose of Christ's energy to help their souls to strengthen and be less subservient to their egos.

Ego blocks and questions every one of life's moves, but souls freely enable. Healing of the separation and all its myriad of symptoms automatically accompanies the strengthening of the soul.

All suffering, with ‘all’ emphasized, is the responsibility of the ego. There is no suffering in Christ. There is only wholeness.

Each Christ in 2022 is promoting wholeness through soul growth. This is true and absolute healing. For those of you who aren’t sure what you are being encouraged to do, this is it. Either consciously bless or allow the blessings to flow automatically and unconsciously. This power knows where it is needed (everywhere). Christ seeks to enhance, empower and embolden smaller amounts of itself. The world is its oyster.

The Ten Powers of Christ (see #43 or the end of this document)

46 ~ Part 1 of 3 ~ Saturday, January 22, 2022, 1:05 a.m.

“Rami here. I Am present and at your service. Let’s continue our thought-provoking exploration, shall we? Christ does not suffer from an overabundance of reactive thought, at least not often, not all the time. Christ can use the shared Christ Mind creatively, hence the ‘Art of Thought’, which in my evaluation, is one of my brother Jesus’ greatest teachings. It can be explored further in ‘A Course of Love’, an overlooked gem of a masterwork. If you haven’t done so, dip your toes in that water. It will enhance your practice of being a love being, in service to love.

Now, let’s get on with it. Being Christ is the highest calling. It is the ultimate achievement as a human, an achievement in allowing. Christ is very patient, but let’s face it, it seeks world domination. It wants to be your next-door neighbor and the man down the street. It’s already you, my friends, but until Christ is everyone, our collective work remains unfinished.

In the twenty-first century, Christ is very much like a visitor to a foreign planet. The ways of the earthlings are often not the ways of Christ, so it can be sticky to navigate sometimes. Let’s talk about what we see in your lives, as the collective Christ body in 2022.

Rami”

47 ~ Part 2 of 3 ~ Saturday, January 22, 2022, 6:35 a.m.

“One of the givens in each of your lives is that the human world isn’t set up to support you as Christ. It didn’t support Jesus or Mother Mary as Christ either, so this isn’t anything new. It was built and designed to support ego and its byproducts, namely competition within and between separateness. It was always the intention in the original design to move the ego towards love so that Christ can grow and take over, but that has been exceedingly difficult to do. The world’s ways, therefore, are not our ways.

So, here each of you is, in a place you are familiar with, because you may have been here for a very long time. Yet, the familiar doesn’t seem like a perfectly fitting pair of jeans. It’s ill-fitting, uncomfortable, and too expensive, but this is what we have asked each of you to do, which is to serve love in a strange land.

You are either consciously or unconsciously serving love to those who may not know what it is. You understand this situation though because it wasn’t that long ago that you were in their shoes as they walk through the mud that is the world, trying to make sense of it all.

While the world cannot truly be your friend, Christ supports other Christs. Christ is also supported by the unseen. This is how we strengthen our miracle-making capacities.

Tomorrow, we will use the Art of Thought to envision what life on earth will be like when the earth does support Christ, and Christ, in turn, does support the earth (Gaia).

Until then,

Rami”

48 ~ Part 3 of 3 ~ Sunday, January 23, 2022, 6:00 a.m.

“For a place where many worship the Christ Child, if there actually were one, no one would know what to do with him or her, meaning no one would know how to support Christ. Earthlings don’t have a good track record with this, after all. Somehow, they thought Christ needed to be “worshipped and adored”. “Loved and allowed” would be more like it.

Starting in infancy, Christ needs to have proper identification reinforced by others who have the same identification. Christ is God in form. Christ will thrive in a loving, nurturing environment from the get-go. All the parental/societal rules and expectations will go out the window. Christ follows his or her own heart and gets constant inspiration from the shared Christ mind. Other Christs know and understand this.

When the infant Christ grows into adolescence, his or her parents will continue to support Christ’s exploration of the world and ways to serve it. There won’t be any fear. No ‘Missing Person’ report, no search party, no frantic search with cadaver dogs. There will only be trust in the power of love. This teenage Christ will support other Christs too, in unity and relationship. All of Christ knows this process deeply.

The transition to adulthood will be a smooth one because Christ has been functionally allowed to use his or her powers since the beginning of a life in form.

Here are some truths to deeply contemplate and discuss with others in the Christ community.

1. Christ does not accumulate trauma.
2. Because of this, it’s highly unlikely that Christ would develop a drug or alcohol dependency.
3. Christ may or may not exercise or eat nutritious food every day, but Christ is happy being in his or her own body.

What can you envision life will be like for both Christ and Gaia when Christ is finally recognized as being all there truly is?

Rami”

Epilogue ~ Sunday, January 23, 2022, 6:30 a.m.

“Rami here. My work with you is complete. We have discussed some very ‘deep’ as they say, subject matter, concerning living in the world today. It has been carefully curated for those who seek to revisit it. If Christ loves more today than yesterday our project of modeling Christ’s energy and using its ten distinct powers to create miracles will be a smashing success (eventually).

What’s next? Christ is all about support, so we cannot fail to support each of you. There will always be something new over the horizon, something that will arrive here and now in perfect timing.

We enjoy these weekly addresses to the larger group, so you can continue to expect them. I Am passing the Christ collective off to a dear friend and colleague to so many of you: Mother Mary. She will speak to you weekly starting on Sunday, January 30th, 2022, through this same channel. Her series will be titled, “The Flowering of Christ”,

May peace be with each of you.
In love and service,

Rami”
